Executive Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Col. White:

May I thank you for taking the time from your busy schedule last Thursday to discuss your procurement review and evaluation project with me. I thoroughly enjoyed my luncheon with you, Mr. Bannerman, and Mr. Earman, and benefitted greatly from the briefing on your current procurement activities.

As I indicated in our discussion, I will be pleased to submit, in the near future, a proposal to assist you in your analysis and appraisal of your current procurement system. In the meantime, I am forwarding to Mr. Bannerman information on four individuals who could contribute significantly to your procurement study. Three of these men have had Top Secret clearances; the fourth has a Secret clearance. After Mr. Bannerman has an opportunity to consider the records of these men, we will submit a proposal to assist you on your survey.

May I again offer my apologies for my late arrival on Thursday. I am most indebted to you for your hospitality and look forward to the pleasure of working with you, Mr. Bannerman, and Mr. Earman in the near future.

Sincerely,

J. Sterling Livingston
Managing Partner
